Alaska Statutes Excerpts from the Alaska Uniform Transfers to Minors Act

AS 13.46.085. Native corporation; custodians.

- (a) The stock or membership in a corporation organized under the law of this state under the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (43 U.S.C. §§ 1601-1642) that a minor is entitled to receive under the Act shall be held by a custodian.
- (b) A person making a transfer of stock, whether by gift, devise, or other method, may nominate a custodian. In the absence of a nomination, the custodian shall be determined under the order of priority set out below. The appointment becomes effective upon the corporation's receipt of the custodian's written consent to the appointment. The order of priority is:
 - (1) the legal guardian, if any, of the minor;
 - (2) a parent, if any, of the minor, as selected by the parents;
 - (3) an adult member of the minor's family; in this paragraph, "member of the minor's family" has the meaning given in AS 13.46.990, and includes members of a family with whom the minor has customarily lived.
- (c) For good cause, a district court or the superior court may vary the order of priority set out in (b) of this section or appoint another suitable person as custodian.
- (d) the custodianship is governed by this chapter, as modified by the following:
 - (1) [Repealed, §§ 12, ch. 60, SLA 1992]
 - (2) under AS 13.46.150, third person is responsible for determining whether stock is inalienable under the Act;
 - (3) the custodian shall give an appropriate receipt for property received by the minor;
 - (4) the custodian may not alienate inalienable property except within the limits provided by law;
 - (5) the form of registration or title shall be "as custodian for _____ (name of the minor) under the Alaska Natives Claims Settlement Act; First name MI Last name
 - (6) a custodian may not receive compensation except, upon application to and approval by the superior court, for unusual and extraordinary services;
 - (7) custodial property includes securities, money and other real and personal property under supervision as a consequence of the act.
- (e) Notwithstanding AS 13.46.190, the stock shall be transferred to the minor when the minor reaches 18 years of age, or to the minor's heirs if the minor dies before reaching 18 years of age.
- (f) In this section.
 - (1) "Act" means the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (43 U.S.C. §§ 1601-1642);
 - (2) "minor" means an individual who is less than 18 years of age.
 - (3) "stock" means the stock or membership in a corporation that is organized under the law of this state under the Act and that a minor is entitled to receive under the Act, whether by gift, devise, or other method; "stock" includes inchoate rights to stock.

AS 13.446.110. Care of custodial property

- (a) A custodian shall:
 - (1) take control of custodial property.
 - (2) register or record title to custodial property if appropriated; and
 - (3) collect, hold manage, invest, and reinvest custodial property
- (b) In dealing with custodial property a custodian shall observe the standard of care that would be observed by a prudent person dealing with property of another and is not limited by any other statute except AS 13.90.010 restricting investments by fiduciaries. If a custodian has a special skill or expertise or is named custodian on the basis of representations of a special skill or expertise, the custodian shall use that skill or expertise. However, a custodian in the custodian's discretion and without liability to the minor or the minor's estate, may retain custodial property received from a transfer.
- (c) A custodian may invest in or pay premiums on life insurance or endowment policies on:
 - (1) the life of the minor only if the minor or the minor's estate is the sole beneficiary; or
 - (2) the life of another person in whom the minor has an insurable interest only to the extent that the minor, the minor's estate, or the custodian in the capacity of custodian is the irrevocable beneficiary;
- (d) A custodian at all times shall keep custodial property separate and distinct from all other property in a manner sufficient to identify it clearly as custodial property of the minor. Custodial property consisting of an undivided interest is so identified if the minor's interest is held as a tenant in common and is fixed.

Custodial property subject to recordation is so identified if it is recorded, and custodial property subject to registration is also identified if it is either registered, or held in an account designated, in the name of the custodian, followed in substance by the words: " as a custodian for _____ (name of minor) under the Alaska Uniform Transfers to Minors Act.

- (e) A custodian shall keep records of all transactions with respect to custodial property, including information necessary for the preparation of the minor's tax returns, and shall make them available for inspection at reasonable interval by a parent or legal representative of the minor or by the minor if the minor has attained the age of 14 years.

Note: to be sure the statutory information is up-to-date and complete; custodians should consult the entire Alaska Uniform Transfer to Minors Act. AS 13.46.010.999

Answers To Your Questions

Below we have provided answers to commonly asked questions about the gifting process. If you do not find an answer to your question here, please contact Kootznoowoo at the phone number provided on the back of this page.

(Q) Who can give a gift of Kootznoowoo shares?

(A) Any Kootznoowoo shareholder over age 18 can give shares as a gift.

(Q) Who can receive a gift of Kootznoowoo shares?

(A) A recipient can be the donor shareholder's child, grandchild, niece, nephew, brother, or sister, either by birth or by legal adoption that occurred before the child was 18 years old.

(Q) Does the recipient have to be an Alaska Native?

(A) A person who receives a gift of shares must be either an Alaska Native or a descendant of a Native, including adopted descendants. Therefore, a recipient need not have a particular blood quantum to be eligible to receive a gift of shares.

(Q) Why do shareholders give some of their shares away as gifts?

(A) Shareholders give shares as gifts for many reasons. For example, some do it to celebrate a child's birthday or high school graduation. Others do it to pass on shareholder benefits to their descendants, so they can enjoy them too. A sister might give some of her shares to her younger brother if he was born after December 18, 1971, the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (ANCSA) enrollment cut-off date.

(Q) How many shares can a shareholder give away?

(A) Shareholder can give any number of shares as a gift. They can give one share, five shares, twenty-five shares, or every share they own. It is up to the shareholder to decide; though we recommend, a shareholder give at least two shares.

(Q) Can a gift include a fraction of a share?

(A) No. The gift must be given in whole shares. For example, a donor who wishes to divide 50 shares among her three children, two of her children will receive 17 shares and the third one will receive 16 shares.

(Q) Is a gift of shares to a minor any different than a gift to an adult?

(A) If the recipient is under age 18, the shares will be held by a custodian (usually the parent or legal guardian, or the donor of the gift) until the recipient turns 18.

(Q) What about a relative of a shareholder's husband or wife?

(A) The recipient must be related to the shareholder by blood or adoption, not by marriage. Therefore, you cannot gift shares to your spouse's niece or nephew.
